SARDIS CHURCH

Sardis Primitive Baptist Church was first organized March 25, 1801. The first building was on land given to the church by Zachariah Wall (near Madison). The second building was at Ellisboro. It was not a church, but a log school house which was used for services. The third church building (date about 1900) was a plain one room wood building on the road where the present church is located. The present church was built about 1913, and has been brick veneered and had water and lights installed. In the 1920's Mrs. Joe H. Glenn and brothers gave pews in memory of their parents.

The following Elders are known to have served as pastor of Sardis:

Possibly others, but these we have known records of.

CHURCH CONSTITUTION    MARCH 25, 1801

North Carolina
Rockingham County

Agreeable to the Resolutions of the District Association, We, the Presbytery, attended at Brother Benjamin Fewell's (to wit). Joseph Antony and William Davis, and after examination respecting principles and Faith, we, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the authority of our office, pronounce you, Benjamin Fewell, Zachariah Wall, Robert Wall, Ann Wall, Ann Fewell, Fannie Wall, Elizabeth Baughn and Susan Wall, a true Gospel Church, known by the name of Sardis, endowed with all necessary power, becoming a complete organized body, and the due government of yourselves, and therefore stand bound to make proper use of that Power as you shall answer it to the Head of the Church on whose name let us further call. Prayer.

(Signed) Joseph Antony
William Davis

COVENANT

For as much as Almighty God, by his grace has been pleased to call us (whose names are underneath subscribed) out of darkness into his marvelous light, and all of us have been regularly baptised upon profession of our Faith in Christ Jesus, and have given ourselves to the Lord and to one another in a Gospel Church way, to be guided and governed by a proper discipline agreeable to the word of God, we do therefore, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and by His assistance, covenant and agree to keep up the discipline of the Church we are members of in the most brotherly affection toward each other, while we endeavor punctually to observe the following rules, viz.-

1st- In brotherly love to pray for each other, to watch over one another and if need be (in the most tender and affectionate manner) to reprove one another, that is, if we discover anything amiss in a Brother, to go and tell him his fault according to the direction given by our Lord in the 18th of St. Matthew's Gospel, provided it be of a private nature, otherwise, rebuke him before all that the rest may fear and not be whispering and backbiting. We also agree, with God's assistance, to pray in our families, attend our church meetings, observe the Lord's Day and do no work that can be avoided, and not absent ourselves from the Communion of the Lord's Supper without a lawful excuse, to be ready to communicate to the defraying of the expenses of the Church, and for the support of the Ministry, not irregularly to depart from the fellowship of the Church, nor remove to distant churches without a regular dismissal. These things we do covenant and agree to observe and keep sacred in the name of and by the assistance of the Holy Trinity. Amen.

Rules of Decorum

Church meetings shall be opened and closed by prayer.

2nd- One person only shall speak at the same time, who shall rise and address the Moderator.

3rd- Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Church except it be withdrawn by consent.

4th- The person speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the Moderator. The member up shall strictly adhere to subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before him, but shall fairly state the case as near as he can, so as to convey his ideas.

5th- No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without leave of the Church.

6th- No member shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Church without permission.

7th- No member of the Church shall be permitted to laugh, whisper, or read any book or paper in time of a public speech.

8th- No member shall address another in any appellation than that of Brother.

9th- The Moderator shall not interrupt any member or prohibit him from speaking until he gives his light on the subject, except he transgress the Rules of Decorum.

10th- The Moderator shall speak last if disposed to give his opinion on the subject before he puts the matter to a vote, but shall have no vote himself unless the Church be equally divided.

11th- Any member who shall willingly and knowingly transgress any of these rules shall be reprov'd as the Church may think proper.
